- A. a group to own the ASMLIB-provisioned storage
- B. an O/S group to own the software inventory
- C. a group to own Automatic-Storage Management (ASM) Filter Driver-provisioned storage
- D. an O/S user to own the Oracle Database installation
- E. an O/S group called dba
- F. an O/S user to own the Clusterware installation and a different O/S user to own the Automatic Storage Management (ASM) installation

Answer: B,E

Explanation:

B: Creating the Oracle Inventory Group If an Oracle Inventory Does Not Exist If the oraInst.loc file does not exist, then create the Oracle Inventory group by entering a command similar to the following:

/usr/sbin/groupadd -g 54321 oinstall

The preceding command creates the oraInventory group oinstall, with the group ID number

5 4321. Members of the oraInventory group are granted privileges to write to the Oracle central inventory (oraInventory), and other system privileges for Oracle installation owner users.

D: Oracle recommends that you create one software owner to own each Oracle software product (typically, oracle, for the database software owner user, and grid for Oracle Grid Infrastructure).

NEW QUESTION: 3

Rewritable and erasable (CDR/W) optical disk are sometimes used for backups that require short time storage for changeable data, but require?

- A. Faster file access than tape.
- B. Slower file access than drive.
- C. Slower file access than tape.
- D. Slower file access than scale.

Answer: A

Explanation:

This is true, when we use optical media like CD's to make our backups we need a constant throughput on the file access and data transfer inside the disk because of the risk to get a buffer overrun error in the CD writer. If the buffer user by the CD burner is empty and the Hard disk does not provide data for that time, the Backup will be unsuccessful. This can be solved with a Technology known as "Burn Proof".
